What is this product?

Type

This product is a fund. ČSOB Globální investice 1 is a sub-fund of the open-ended investment company governed by Luxembourg law, Contribute Partners. This open-ended investment company does not fulfil the requirements of the UCITS Directive (*).

Term

Limited to 30 September 2026

Objectives

Contribute Partners ČSOB Globální investice 1 aims to deliver a possible return at maturity, by investing in various assets, such as bonds and cash, and by concluding swaps. The initial subscription price is 10 Czech koruna. The initial subscription period runs from 1 October 2020 until 1 December 2020 (before 6 am CET).

The fund's return is linked to the performance of a basket of shares.

At maturity (30 September 2026):

- If the value of the basket is not lower than its initial value, 130% of the increase in value will be paid out, in addition to the initial subscription price.
- If the value of the basket is not lower than 65%, but is lower than 100% of its initial value, the decline value will not be taken into account, and you will receive the initial subscription price.
- If the value of the basket is lower than 65% of its initial value, the decline in value relative to its initial value will be deducted in full from the initial subscription price.

The basket comprises the shares of a worldwide selection of large-cap, blue-chip companies.

The evolution of the basket is calculated on the basis of average share prices over a specific period. The calculation of a weighted average can have a positive or negative impact on the fund's return. It also ensures that share prices do not overly affect the return should they rise or fall significantly on certain days (for more details, see section 2 of the information concerning this sub-fund in the prospectus).

To achieve the return, the fund invests:

- in SPV* notes, other bonds and debt instruments, deposits and/or cash. SPV notes are listed bonds issued by Special Purpose Vehicles managed by KBC Asset Management or one of its subsidiaries. The minimum credit rating* that the bonds and other debt instruments have to meet is set out in the prospectus.
- and in swaps* concluded with one or more prime counterparties.

The fund is denominated in Czech koruna.

Orders for fund units are executed twice a month (for more details, see section 4 of the information concerning this sub-fund in the prospectus).

More details on how the fund works and on its composition (including the selection of shares) can be found in section 2 of the information concerning this sub-fund in the prospectus. The process for selecting the shares in the basket uses parameters that may affect the investments' possible return.

Intended retail investor

The product is aimed at retail investors who want to build up wealth and have an investment horizon until 30 September 2026.

These investors are willing to take a certain amount of risk for a potentially higher return and can bear losses under adverse conditions.

These investors are well-informed and experienced in investing.

What are the risks and what could I get in return?

Risk indicator

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you. We have classified this product as 3 out of 7, which is a medium-low risk class.

3 is a typical rating for a structured fund that has a fixed maturity date and no capital protection. The absence of capital protection increases the fund's sensitivity to the markets.

This product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment.

If we are not able to pay you what is owed, you could lose your entire investment.

Moreover, an investment in this fund involves:

- a moderate level of inflation risk: there is no protection against an increase of the inflation.

There is no capital protection.

Scenarios

The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself, but may not include all the costs that you pay to your advisor or distributor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back.

What you will get from this product depends on future market performance. Market developments in the future are uncertain and cannot be accurately predicted.

The scenarios shown are illustrations based on results from the past and on certain assumptions. Markets could develop very differently in the future.

The stress scenario shows what you might get back in extreme market circumstances.

Recommended holding period: until 30 September 2026

Example Investment: 250 000 CZK

If you exit after 1 year

If you exit
on 30 September 2026

The performance scenarios are estimates based on minimum 10 000 price simulations of the underlying investments, taking into account the payoff structure of the fund/product. The price simulations are obtained by using the observed/historical returns of the underlyings (or of appropriate benchmarks and proxies) up until the maturity of the fund.

What happens if KBC Asset Management NV is unable to pay out?

Because you invest directly in the fund, the failure of the Management Company, KBC Asset Management NV, to make distributions (for example, due to insolvency) would have no direct consequences on the ability of the fund to make distributions.

In the event that the fund itself fails to make distributions, you may lose your investment entirely. The fund is not covered by any compensation, guarantee scheme or any other form of investor guarantee.

What are the costs?

The person advising on or selling you this product may charge you other costs. If so, this person will provide you with information about these costs and how they affect your investment.

Costs over time

The tables show the amounts that are taken from your investment to cover different types of costs. These amounts depend on how much you invest and how long you hold the product. The amounts shown here are illustrations based on an example investment amount and different possible investment periods.

We have assumed:

- in the first year you would get back the amount you invested (0% annual return). For the other holding periods we have assumed the product performs as shown in the moderate scenario
- 250 000 CZK is invested.

	If you exit after 1 year	If you exit on 30 September 2026
Total costs	12 728 CZK	12 579 CZK
Annual cost impact (*)	5.1%	1.9% each year

(*) This illustrates how costs reduce your return each year over the holding period. For example it shows that if you exit at the recommended holding period your average return per year is projected to be 9.8% before costs and 7.9% after costs.

We may share part of the costs with the person selling you the product to cover the services they provide to you. They will inform you of the amount.

These figures include the maximum distribution fee that the person selling you the product may charge: 2.5% of the amount invested. This person will inform you of the actual distribution fee.

How long should I hold it and can I take my money out early?

Recommended holding period: until 30 September 2026.

We recommend holding on to this product until it matures. The recommended holding period is based on this scenario. The investment policy aims to achieve the investment objectives on the fund's final maturity date. Our recommended term therefore coincides with the fund's duration.

You can exit this product before the maturity of the fund but in that case the probability of getting less back than the initial investment is higher. In case of a partial or full exit the exit costs mentioned in the "What are the costs?" section will be charged.
